VI. Terms and Conditions

The Academy of Glam experience is intended solely for the personal enrichment and enjoyment of its participants. Our workshops range from basic to advanced makeup techniques and seek to inspire participants through portfolio development, motivational talks, life coaching, and collaboration with other artists. We are not considered a vocational school, nor are our workshops intended to qualify participants for employment through certification or licensing. To offer diplomas, certificates, or credits, an institution must be recognized by the State of Florida as a licensed post-secondary or vocational school. Academy of Glam is not a post-secondary or vocational school. We hold informal cutting-edge workshops for a new generation of artists. Academy of Glam documents your experience through high-quality, professional grade, portfolio pictures.

I have read and understand the above and agree to the terms as stated.
